EMPLOYER SUPPORT PAYMENT SCHEME

SUPPORTING INFORMATION FOR SELF-EMPLOYED RESERVISTS

Instructions for Completion

What the form will be used for

The information on this form will be used by Joint Health Command (JHC) staff to certify certain eligibility requirements for Employer Support Payment Scheme (ESPS) claims made under the CDF Health Approval.

Under the CDF Health Approval, capability employer support payments may be made to eligible medical, dental, nursing or allied health officers who have undertaken eligible periods of Defence service.

The types of service that may be eligible for capability employer support payments are listed in the CDF Health Approval, a copy of which is available on the Defence Reserves Support website at www.defencereservessupport.gov.au.

How the form will be processed

Completed forms can be certified by CJHLTH or SGADFR, or an officer authorised by one of them. Director General Health Capability (DGHC) has been authorised to undertake this function.

Completed forms should be provided to the DGHC for certification. If uncertain about any element of the information provided, DGHC may require that further detail or supporting documentation be provided.

Once the form has been certified by DGHC, it will be provided to the ESPS staff who will process ESPS claims made under the CDF Health Approval.

Filling in the form

Health Speciality/Discipline – your health speciality/discipline. If you have more than one speciality/discipline, show your predominant civilian occupation.

Name of your business – as per your ABN registration (may be sole trader, partnership, company or trust name – eg A & C Smith or Smith Trust).

Name and location of practice – the name and location of the medical, dental or allied health practice where you work (eg Smithtown Medical Centre, Smithtown, ACT). If you work in multiple locations, specify this.

Employment status – show as business owner, contractor or employee.

- If you are a sole trader in a business, a partner, director or trustee, or have a controlling interest in the business, show your employment status as business owner (unless you provide services as a contractor under a contract for services).
- If you provide your services as a contractor under a contract for services, show your employment status as contractor. You must also detail the business/company that you contract to provide services to.
- If you are employed under a contract of employment, show your employment status as employee. You must also detail the name of the business or practice that you are employed by.
